Wright Patterson - The Birthplace, Home and Future of Aerospace

Wright-Patterson Air Force Base is divided into three areas, A, B and C. Areas A and C are connected and are west of State Route 444. These areas house Headquarters Air Force Materiel Command and the 88th Air Base Wing. Also located in these areas are the Wright-Patterson Medical Center, some on-base housing units, visiting officer's and airmen's quarters, officer's club, golf course and one of the base gymnasiums.

Area B, home to the Aeronautical Systems Center and Aircraft Survivability and Safety Flight, is located south of State Route 444 with borders on Springfield Pike, Highland Road, Cedar Glen, Highland National Road,

ENTERING WRIGHT-PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE

Personnel visiting the Aircraft Survivability and Safety Flight between the hours of 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. should enter through Gate 1B on Springfield Pike and stop at the Visitor Reception Center, Bldg. 58 (937-255-3238), to obtain personal and vehicle passes (vehicle registration/rental car papers must be presented).

After registering, display the vehicle pass in the lower left corner of your car's windshield. This will allow you to exit and enter the base through any open gate for the remainder of that day.

If you plan to arrive after 5 p.m. or on a weekend or holiday, please contact the person/organization you are visiting or base security (937-257-6841) prior to your arrival for entry instructions.
